

Hezbollah Crossing US Southern Border into the States?

Hezbollah Crossing US Southern Border into the States?

-

We now know that the Iranian backed terrorists Hezbollah has established a training base and a base of operations in South America. There's an area in South America where the borders of Paraguay, Brazil and Argentina come together known as the Tri-Corners. Hezbollah has set up base camp there. It seems there are about 25,000 Arabs in the area offspring of parents who fled the Middle East after the 1948 Arab-Israeli war and again in 1985 after the Lebanese civil war.

From the Tri-Corners area it is a straight shot to the US/Mexican border and it is extremely easy to infiltrate the Southern US by slipping across that border as millions have done and continue to do. The CIA tells us it is far more difficult to apprehend Terrorist sneaking across the border than the poor Mexicans, because the Terrorist have plenty of money with which to pay the best smugglers available to get them safely across.

You can read the story for yourself at:

<http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/17874369/>

Should Americans be worried? You're darned tooting we should! Our sworn "fight to the death" enemy is entrenched just south of our wide open, extremely vulnerable, border and they make no secret of their goal to slip into the US and kill as many Americans, men, women, and children, as they possibly can before going to meet Allah, or whoever.

Ok, so what do we do about it?

First, close and secure our southern border with Mexico... build an honest to goodness cement wall, 20 feet high, the length of the Mexican/US border. Place armed guards atop that wall with orders to shoot anyone attempting to climb over or under that wall headed north.

Next we should dispatch UAV's to the Tri-Corners area of South America and seek out and locate those Hezbollah training camps. Once they are located, we should bomb the living daylights out of them, with, or without, the permission of the hosting countries. If it is possible to insert special forces into that area, we should do so with orders to locate and kill the Hezbollah leaders not only in the Tri-Corners area but anywhere they are found in South America, or Central America, or even Mexico. We can't do that within our own borders due to the Posse Comitatus Act, which forbids the US Military from acting as law enforcement within the boundaries of the US.

Will any of this be done?"

Some of it, perhaps. I suspect we already have, or have had, UAV spy planes over that area and most likely have located those camps. I suspect we have Special Forces in the area targeting the leaders and liquidating them as quickly and quietly as possible. As to the bombing, I don't expect that to happen.

Will this help?

No!

Look, sooner or later we are going to have to fight Hezbollah, and the other terrorist groups, on the home soil of America. There simply is no way around it. And we cannot expect to have victory until the American people are united in the single goal of wiping out the terrorists. Until then, the American body count will continue to rise. In other words: it's going to get a lot worse before it gets any better!

Longstreet

About the Author

Conservative Southern American

Source: <http://CrossPosted.net>